Quinnipiac University to Host Hundreds of High and Middle School Students at 61st Annual Connecticut Science Fair

Nearly 500 middle and high school students from throughout the state will showcase their science talent at the 2009 Connecticut Science Fair. The week-long event will be held March 10-14 at Quinnipiac University in Hamden. The best opportunity for media to catch the action is during final judging between 8:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. on Thursday, March 12, when about 150 student finalists will present their projects to and answer questions from judges from academia and industry.

The top four winners, (who will represent Connecticut at the Intel International Science and Engineering Fair in Reno, Nev., May 10-15,) along with winners in other categories will be announced by 5 pm March 12. Special Award winners will be announced by noon on Saturday, March 14.

Potential media opportunities during fair week are:

Tuesday, March 10	12:30-7:30 pm	Project Set Up
Wednesday, March 11	9 am – 2 pm	Preliminary and Special Awards Judging
Thursday, March 12	9 am – 1:15 pm	Finalist Judging
	2:45-4:45 pm	Finalist Awards
		Alumni Hall
Friday, March 13	9 am-1 pm	School Group Visits
	1 pm – 4 pm	Open to the Public
Saturday, March 14	10 am- 12 pm	Special Awards Ceremonies
		Alumni Hall

*(**Best media opportunity, as 150 student finalists present their projects to judges.)*

All events are held in the Gymnasium, unless noted.
